11:00:00	Woodsongs Crowder and the Collection	NETA	(S)	(CC)	N/A	#1611
	Crowder is the critically acclaimed artist and songwriter whose unique blend of folk/pop/electronica style combined with his outstanding musicianship, profound lyrics, and intricate songcraft creates a sound that any fan of a catchy tune can appreciate. Long embraced for his tenure as the frontman of the wildly progressive group David Crowder Band, the band sold over 2 million albums, 2.9 million digital tracks, and had 11 Top 10 albums on Billboard's Christian Albums Chart, including four that reached #1. Crowder celebrated the release of his solo debut album 'Neon Steeple' with a Top 10 entry on the Billboard 200, hitting No. 9. The Collection are an incredible new folk collective. The group, lead by vocalist and guitarist David Wimbish, prides itself as a community of artists, nurses, farmers, students, and everyone in between living life together. The majority of its members live on the same street (if not in the same house) in the heart of Greensboro, North Carolina, employing an assortment of instruments from drum and bass to phin and didgeridoo. Ranging from 13-18 members depending on the day, the band has just released a powerful new album titled 'Ars Moriendi'.
